THE FOURTH ANNUAL HAITI CHURCH CONVENTION was a tremendous blessing! The crowd was larger than it has ever been before. Somewhere between 2000 to 2500 people were singing and worshipping together! In this four day meeting, Lifeline was able to bless the Haitian people by sharing medical help as well as feeding their bodies and souls. The pictures in this newsletter are just a few of the hundreds that were taken. Thank you very much to everyone who helped to make this convention a blessing!

The Haitian people truly know how to worship the Lord! Some of these people walked for hours and yet they stood with arms raised singing and praising God!

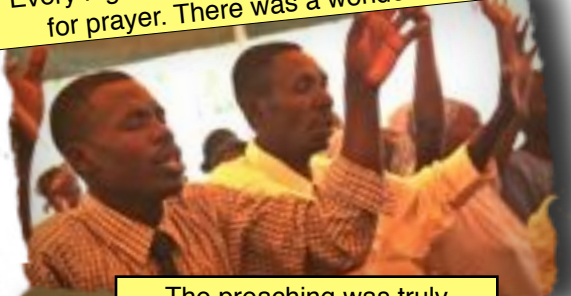

Every night a number of people came forward for prayer. There was a wonderful spirit.

Watching the young people worship the Lord blessed our hearts!

The band played as we marched to the river for the baptism.

The preaching was truly anointed every service.

The march to the baptism was an amazing experience. It was like the children of Israel marching out of Egypt.

Twenty people were baptized during the convention! The reactions of the people varied from prayer to shouting and praising God!
